Lyn White is an influential and courageous campaigner. As the investigator and campaign director for Animals Australia, it was Lyn who brought images of animal cruelty in Indonesian abattoirs to Australian televisions.
Showing bravery, tenacity and stamina, Lyn secretly filmed the treatment of cattle, and the resultant expose on the ABC's Four Corners program precipitated a public outcry.
The death of nearly 6,000 Australian sheep on their way to the Saudi Arabia marked the start of Lyn's career as an investigator for Animals Australia, and since then she has put her personal safety at risk to document the handling and slaughter of Australian sheep and cattle in Indonesia and the Middle East.
Her work has resulted in a ban on the live sheep trade to Egypt, pre-slaughter stunning in Jordan's major abattoirs and a commitment to the banning of sow stalls in Australia by 2017.
Lyn is striving for to reduce the needless suffering of animals.
We are thrilled to welcome Lyn to the 2015 Freedom Summits. See less
